NAMRUP: Food and civil supply minister Rihon Daimary said the poor people who have been availing off the benefits of the government schemes need not be worried.

Opening a piped water supply project in Naharkatiya on Wednesday as public health engineering minister, Daimary said there is no move, as if now, to disrupt the schemes meant to supply rice to the APL and BPL families. "This government has no such plan to stop the schemes which have been percolating benefits for the poor people," said Daimary who holds both PHE and food & Civil supply portfolios.

Naharkatiya MLA Naren Sonowal, Duliajan MLA Teros Goala and Tingkhong MLA Bimal Baruah were prominent among those who attended the function in the afternoon. The scheme will benefit many people in the area who have been suffering from potable water crises for years.
