Normal classes have resumed once again in Saint John's Higher Secondary School, Barama of Baksa district after principal Father Raimon was ousted from the school following teachers strike on Thursday.

The teachers alleged that Raimon has been functioning the school on his autocratic style and policy while keeping aside school authority and local publics.

A meeting with teachers staff would be organised in the school to discuss about the prevailing situation of school management where Bishop of Bongaigaon Diocese Father Thomas Phulopplil will grace on September 14. However, they(teachers) have passed message to the Bishop that Father Raimon cannot be reinstated by no means, said an agitated teacher in the school.
