Probe into the mob attack on MLA Rumi Nath and her second husband Jacky Zakir at Karimganj on June 30 is going on. This was what the government informed the Assam Assembly on Monday. Replying to a question, Forest Minister Rockybul Hussain told the assembly on behalf of Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi said that the duo were brought to Guwahati with police escort. The minister was replying to questions on the first day of the assembly session after opposition members raised a furore over the culprits engaged in the attack on Nath in a Karimganj hotel last month.
