Thousands of people in Dibrugarh joined an AASU sponsored procession on Tuesday in protest against the government’s failure to check price hike of essential commodities. The protesters shouted slogans demanding the Tarun Gogoi Government’s resignation saying the government has been failing to check price rise of essential commodities. They further questioned the government’s moral right to continue the office. The participants in the procession organized by the Dibrugarh AASU leaders have alleged that the government has secret deal with a circle of dishonest businessmen. Thereafter, the protesters have submitted a memorandum before the Dibrugarh deputy commissioner demanding immediate steps to check the price rise.
