The People's Party of Arunachal has raised doubts over the sincerity of a section of BJP leaders in Itanagar and Delhi in the probe into the Kalikho Pul's revelations.

Talking to Assam Times in Itanagar, PPA leaders alleged that those named in the Mera Vichaar are still moving without any hindrance.

They said," the BJP leadership have not taken any action against these party men indicted by the former chief minister. Despite evidence the BJP high command keeps mum."

They further charged Prime Minister Narendra Modi with maintaining stoic silence and keeps talking of a corruption-free country.

A senior PPA leader rued that if BJP refuses to go tougher they would have no other option to pull out of the North East Democratic Alliance. "Then we will break the alliance with BJP. We have no option. What forced Modi to keep silent?"

They further demanded resignation of Chief Minister Pema Khandu, Deputy Chief Minister Chowna Mein and parliamentary secretary Pasang Dorjee Sona for being named in the suicide note.
