

Purvotar Hindi Academy convention held in Shillong

Comments 0

editor 28 May 2012 11672 views

Purvotar Hindi Academy, Shillong organized a three day “Rastriya Hindi Vikash Samelan” at Rajasthan Vishram Bhawan, Shillong on May 25 to 27, 2012, to popularize Hindi language in the Northeastern region. Experts in their own fields poets, writers, columnists, artists, singers from different parts of India took part in the samelan , (workshop) a participant had come from as far as Russia to participate in the samelan.

On the closing day of the samelan Meghalaya Deputy Chief Minister BM Lanong lauded the efforts of the Academy for popularizing Hindi Language particularly in Meghalaya and other State of northeast in general. Mr. Lanong while giving his speech in Hindi said, it is very important to learn the national language, adding he said that “What ever broken Hindi I am speaking, I have learnt by myself.” He further said, now-a-days most of the khasi children are also taking interest to learn and even teach Hindi language.

During the programme the participants were honoured with shawl and citation.

The gathering was welcomed by the Indian Council for Cultural Relations regional officer Mr. N. Muhish Singh. Other who spoke during the programme include AK Mathur, Bimal Bajaj, Akela Bhai, Pawan Bawri, Sangeeta Sharma and others.

Rajoo Sharma, Shillong

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

BJP leader likely to surrender

Congress demands CM's resignation

Durga puja ends in Kokrajhar

Award for BVFCL Daily Bazaar Puja

Dalai Lama to visit Manipur on October 17
