Guwahati: Senior Congress leader Rahul Gandhi paid his tribute to Tarun Gogoi on Wednesday two days after the former Chief Minister breathed his last at the Guwahati Medical College Hospital.

Gandhi, who arrived in the capital city from Goa at 9 in the morning straightly left for Gogoi's official residence in Dispur where he condoled the demise of the senior Congress leader.

Accompanied by KC Venugopal and Jitendra Singh, Gandhi rushed to the Shankardev Kalakhethra where paid his last respect to Gogoi.

His mortal remains would be kept at the Shankardev Kalakheta for Wednesday and would be cremated at Navagraha cremation ground on Thursday.
