Police of Nagaon district raided a Public Call Office located at Moirabari in Nagaon and seized a good number of illegal documents. Police personnel said to Assam Times during a talk that the SMS which was sent to the television channel News Live through a Reliance mobile SIM card was connected from the raid PCO. Police also arrested several persons from the area in this connection for further questioning. Nagaon police urge all the people to inform the police if any movement of militant groups is observed in the area.
