GOLAGHAT: The police have raided the Bio Diversity Park in Kaziranga triggering no less anger among the KMSS leaders and activists who set up it two years back.

A team of Bokakhat police along with three botanists reached the park near the world heritage site and conducted the raid for nearly four hours.

The police team claimed to have recovered a few rare species of orchid as they raided the park a couple of days after Dulal Bora, an RTI activist lodged a land grabbing case against Akhil Gogoi.
