The Arrested ULFA top guns Arabinda Rajkhowa, his military spokesman Raju Baruah and security man Raja Borah would be produced before the court of Kamrup Chief Judicial Magistrate on Saturday as the period for police custody ends. According to information, the trio would be produced at the camp court inside the Guwahati Central jail where the journalists would not be allowed to go. They are likely to be remanded to judicial custody which will help them talk to other senior ULFA leaders including vice chairman Pradeep Gogoi, publicity secretary Mithinga Daimary, acting general secretary Chitaban Hazarika and foreign secretary Sashadhar Chaudhury. With this only ULFA adviser and central committee member Bhimkanta Burahgohain has been languishing in Tezpur Central jail.
