Ranjan Daimary, the prime convict of the Oct'30 serial bomb blast and the chief of NDFB was released from jail today.

The dreaded leader of the NDFB was sentenced for life by a CBI special court a few years ago.

The Guwahati granted him a four-week bail for taking part in peace-talks with the Centre.

The Union Home ministry and the state government had submitted no objection certificates in the High Court.

Based on these the High Court granted Daimary bail. Meanwhile, the Centre has started peace-talks with all the fractions of the NDFB.
