NAMRUP: Properties worth crores of rupees were reduced to ashes when the Daily Market in the BVFCL premises in Namrup caught fire on Friday.

The incident took place in the wee hours because of electric short circuit where at least 35 big and small shops were gutted in the huge fire.

Fire fighters from BVFCL, OIL, APL were deployed to bring the situation under control. But by then the inferno ravaged these 35 shops and stalls. Smokes are still bellowing from a number of shops.

The owner of the Rupkanya Stores, alone, claimed to have lost properties worth ₹45 lakh not to speak of what the owners of Tarana Tailors claimed.

The real extent of damage, however, has yet to be ascertained. The police have been investigating the incident.
