"At present there comes great threat for the Khilanjiya jati-Janagosthi'. The formation of population had completely changed. The AIUDF chief of Assam had raised question in the Loksabha for 10% reservation for the Muslims. This demand might cause a threat for the khilanjiya people of Assam."-- Said Ranjit Dutta, State president, BJP in a press meet at Barpeta press club premises on May 19. Dutta also said that Tarun Gogoi-led congress government had about to complete four years of their rule, but they had forgotten the assurance whatever they had promised during the time of their election. He also called the people to ask the govt why they had not fulfill their assurance. Dutta also demanded the government to solve the international border problem and also demanded to bring back the encroached the 87 thousand hectare land which were under the capture of nearby state. Moreover, he also demanded to preserve the historical monuments at satra nagari Barpeta, rescue the satras, devalayas, mathas, temples and its lands from the encroacher, stop the supply of crude oil, rice, illegal logs, cattle through the river-ways and also urged the govt to strengthen the river police force. He again urged the govt to upgrade Barnagar as the new subdivision of the district, and solve the erosion problem scientifically by the mighty river Bramhaputra and Beki which Had created havoc at Bahari area and so many people became homeless. Besides the president also said to the news persons to complete the construction of Barpeta Medical college as early as possible. The BJP president also informed the news persons that their party would soon started a programme" Gaoloi Bolok" and before that programme they had visited various places of the district like Chenga, Sarthebari and Barpeta town and held Karmi Sabha. He added that the migration problem also becomes a threat for Assam. In this press meet Ranjit kr Das, state secy, BJP, Harekrishna Bharali, Organizer secy and district president Chanakya Pathak etc were also present
