Yet another challenge for NorthEast United FC are the home team are facing Atletico de Kolkata in the Hero Indian Super League match in Guwahati on Friday. The guest team members have reached Guwahati to take on the NorthEast United FC first time after the home team got a point beating Chennaiyin FC 2-0 at the packed Indira Gandhi Athletic Stadium in the evening.

All eyes are fixed on Marquee player Simao Sabrosa who played his first match for NorthEast United FC and scored a penalty. That's why, the home team managers believes that they are in good order.

Atletico de Kolkata players are equally prepared to get more point. They won't allow the home team to take any chance. The discomfiture of their defeat with FC Pune City in the last match have forced them to act seriously. They are trying their best to regain the lost strength.
