A rhino calf continues to unleashe panic in Sarbhog on Thursday leaving at least ten persons injured during the last 24 hours.

Angry local residents gheraoed the nearest police station, alleging inaction to push back the rhino who has already injured a few forest guards. The calf recently got separated from its mother, strayed out of Manas National Park and stormed in to human habitations.

Forest authorities said that efforts were on to chase the rhino from areas of human habitation into the forest. A section of local residents on Thursday came to see the rhino swimming in the nearby Beki river.
