His name is Bikash Bagwar. The son of a daily wager earner from Duliajan is a first year student of the Regional Institute of science and technology in Meghalaya Mile in Meghalaya.

In view of his poor family background, the RIST authority has waived the college fees based on his mark which stood at 71% in higher Secondary from Digboi College.

But the problems are not over for Bikash. Even after he was exempted from the college expense, he has facing grim crisis for food and lodging which is no less than Rs 3500 per month.

His family members and well wishers are waiting for help. Interested people are free to contract Jadumoni Saikia, Reporter Amar Asom.

More than four decades after the release of the iconic Assamese film Kokadeuta Nati Aru Hati, audiences across Assam are preparing to welcome its sequel, Kokadeuta Nati Aru Hati 2, which is scheduled to hit theatres on July 3.

Originally released on November 18, 1983, the Nip Barua-directed film remains one of the most beloved family dramas in Assamese cinema. Built around the emotional bond between a grandfather, his grandson and an elephant, the film captured the simplicity, values and cultural ethos of rural Assam and became a landmark success at the box office.

The original film featured the late actor Nipon Goswami as Kokadeuta and Pranjal Saikia as Moina, the grandson. The story revolved around Moina's childhood, his friendship with the family elephant Brikodor, and his growing companionship with Makon, an orphaned girl adopted by his grandfather. The film continues to enjoy a strong emotional connection with audiences even today.

The movie also holds a special place in public memory as Assam Chief Minister Dr. Himanta Biswa Sarma appeared as a child artiste in the popular song Ek Dui Tini Saari, Juti Dilu Goru Gari, a clip that continues to circulate widely on social media.

Produced by Pride East Entertainment, Kokadeuta Nati Aru Hati 2 has been conceptualised and produced by Riniki Bhuyan Sharma, Chairperson and Managing Director of the media group. The sequel seeks to revive a cherished cultural legacy while presenting a story designed for contemporary audiences.

In a notable role reversal from the original film, Pranjal Saikia will now portray the grandfather, while actor Utpal Das will play the grandson. Actor Jatin Bora appears as the son of Pranjal Saikia's character.

The film boasts an ensemble cast that includes Adil Hussain, Prostuti Porasor, Preety Kongana, Tapan Das, Debajit Mazumdar, Jolly Laskar, Jeanette Bay, Siddhant Kalita, Pankaj Mahanta, Shreya Borthakur, Apurba Goswami and Rajkumar Chutia, among others. Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma also makes a cameo appearance in the film.

Directed by Biswajeet Bora, known for films such as Aisa Yeh Jahaan, Bahniman, Raktabeez, God on the Balcony and Boomba Ride, the sequel aims to preserve the emotional appeal of the original while adopting a contemporary cinematic style.

The screenplay has been written by Bhaskar Hazarika, with cinematography by Pradip Daimary and editing by Shweta Venkat. Sound design has been handled by Amrit Pritam and Debojit Changmai, while the background score has been composed by Ajay Singha.

Music for the film has been created by Joi Barua, Pranoy Dutta and Tarali Sarma. The soundtrack features voices such as Zubeen Garg, Dwipen Baruah, Tarali Sarma, Joi Barua, Ereka Ann, Arupjyoti Baruah, Nahid Afrin and Prabin Borah. Among the songs already attracting attention is Runjun, sung and composed by Zubeen Garg.

With nostalgia surrounding the original film still intact and expectations high among audiences, Kokadeuta Nati Aru Hati 2 is poised to become one of the most anticipated Assamese film releases of the year.
