Road blockade was staged today afternoon on NH37 near Haibargaon police station by the Truck Owners Association of Nagaon in protest of the release of the two FCI officials by the police. The two officials of FCI godown at senchowa were detained yesterday for questioning for alleged financial irregularities by the police at haibargaon police station. The duo were however let off by the police late last night. The protestors were demanding action against the two FCI officials on the basis of complaint lodged by Nagaon Truck Owners Association with the police.

The situation was brought under control by the Nagaon administration and assurance of following legal procedure in the case was given to the protestors by the authorities after which the road blockade was removed.
