Central BJP leadership is asking Sarbananda Sonowal to take rein of the state president just nine months ahead of assembly polls.

Sources told Assam Times that Siddharth Bhattacharya is believed to have received some crucial charges to ensure poll victory.

The Union minister, who is the obvious choice for the chief ministerial candidate, is not interested for the assignment.

“If he is allowed to take over as the state unit president Sonowal will have to quit as Union minister which he does not want,” said a senior BJP leader.
