The mystery is over. An AMCH confessed to have killed Dr Sarita Tosniwal in the wee hours at her duty room attached to the gynecology ICU on Friday.

The sensational confession surfaced after police interrogated wardboy Kero Mech immediately after the incident came to light.

Police officials investigating the sensational case suspect that the first year PG student of gynecology department was killed after an abortive rape attempt.

Doctors at the AMCH, JMCH, BMCH and GMCH demand exemplary punishment for the culprit for the heinous crime where a doctor was killed on her duty hour.

The body which was found lying on a bed has a grave cut marks with a surgical knife in the neck. The knife was recovered from the injury portion of her neck.

The incident came to light when a nurse went to the duty room attached to the ICU to meet her at 7-30 in the morning.

Senior police officials arrived in the spot and gathered preliminary inputs in this connection.

Sarita's father who is a businessman by profession in Sivasagar arrived in the spot after he was informed by the college authority.
