Rampant corruption in the public life dominated a considerable portion of conversation between Mark Tully and John Elliot on the second day of the Guwahati Lit Fest on Sunday.

Elliot said that a section self serving police top guns and bureaucrats have been resorting to corruption that emerges a big threat to be dealt with the country's public life.

He said corruption should be firmly dealt with to help the country boost development on all fronts. He further said that the a circle of the administrators is more or less arrogant.
