The United Liberation Front of Asom's anti-talk faction on Sunday comes down heavily on BJP and its youth wing alleging that the proposed procession in Arunachal Pradesh would only provoke China. In an e-mail statement, the anti-talk faction of the outfit said that the proposed mid-October procession along Indo-China border would only provoke the neighbor. It further asked BJP's youth wing not to make the people of Assam a scapegoat. Notably, BJP's youth wing is gearing up to take out a procession in Arunachal Pradesh to offer tribute to the 1962 heroes.
