A high level consultative meeting was held today 24th of August in Guwahati at NEDFI House with stakeholders by State Bank of India presided over by SBI Chairman Shri Rajnish Kumar, accompanied by SBI Chief General Manager, North East Circle Shri Sunil Kumar Tandon, his team and members of other public sector Banks.

The objective of the meeting was to consult industry representatives for generation of ideas to give a boost to the economy which has slowed down in recent months.

Federation of Industry and Commerce of North Eastern Region (FINER) was represented by Shri R.S. Joshi , immediate past Chairman , Shri Bajrang Lohia , Vice President and Shri Ajay Agarwal, member .

During the deliberations FINER delegation put forward specific reasons for decline in business confidence and submitted concrete suggestions which can be implemented by the Banking sector to revive confidence , ensure ease of doing business and augment investments .

The role of the Banks in reviving the investment sentiments was emphasized by FINER towards the ultimate goal of making India a $ 5 Trillion economy .

The suggestions were appreciated and would be integrated into Pan India policy initiatives and the road map which the Banking sector will now be carving out .
