New Delhi: The Supreme Court on Monday declined to accept a plea by All BTC Minority Students' Union (ABMSU) raising concerns over the state's "indiscriminate" move to detain and deport suspected foreigners.

A Bench of the top court comprising Justices Sanjay Karol and Satish Chandra Sharma asked ABMSU to move the the Gauhati High Court.

In writ petition, the organisation questioned the growing pattern of deportations by the Assam Government through informal “push back” mechanisms, without any judicial oversight or adherence to the safeguards envisaged by the Constitution.
