Guwahati: Hours after the health authorities formally announced the steep decline in the number of COVID 19 patients, the state government is preparing to resumed functioning in the Secretariat from April 21. But there will be a slew of guidelines for the employees to be strictly followed.

The decision has been taken to operationalise the government functioning despite continuance of the nationwide lockdown up to May 3 following a Union home ministry directive issued on April 15 to contain the spread of COVID-19.

“The seniormost Secretary/Head of the Administrative Department will ensure that officers of the rank of Deputy Secretary and above shall attend office of the Department regularly and other Grade-I and Grade-11 officers may attend office as required w.e.f 21.04.2020,” reads an office memorandum,
