Guwahati, June 2: Senior forest official Brahmananda Patiri, serving as the Divisional Forest Officer (DFO) of the Chirang division in Assam's Chirang district, passed away on Sunday, June 2, 2024. Patiri, who had been admitted to Nemcare Hospital in Guwahati on Saturday after experiencing health issues during a meeting, breathed his last this morning.

Patiri was a well-educated and widely read individual, known for his involvement in cultural and literary activities. His untimely demise has left a significant void in both the forestry sector and the cultural community.

People from various communities have extended their deep condolences and are mourning the loss of Patiri, who was highly respected and admired for his dedication and contributions.

The Forest Department and the entire state of Assam have expressed their grief over the passing of an esteemed officer and a cherished member of society.
