More than 200 supporters of All India United Democratic Youth Front (AIUDYF) had made sit-in-demonstration for four hours before the office of the Deputy Commissioner of Dhubri on 4 July and demanded to stop harassment of the genuine Indian Citizens in the name of D-Voters. They had also submitted a memorandum to the Honorable Prime Minister of India through the Deputy Commissioner of Dhubri and it was forwarded to the Union Home Minister, Union Law Minister, and the Chief Minister of Assam.

“A huge number of genuine Indian citizens are now passing their days with lots of fear. “Genuine Indian, predominantly Bengali Hindus, and Muslims (who are marked as D-voters) are living in great anxiety apprehending arrest. Assam Police are now harassing people of different minority dominated area of Assam threatening to arrest them and putting them in Jail/detention camp citing the verdict of the recent high court”, the memorandum stated.

The District President of AIUDYF, Jamser Talukdar, who is also the Secretary of the Dhubri Bar Association, alleged that the order of detention of ‘D’ voters by Gauhati High Court is the clear violation of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in which it is clearly mentioned that an accused shall not be termed as guilty unless it is declared by Judicial court of the country.
