Dear Friends,

It is impossible to see in isolation the latest beating that resulted in the death of a young boy from North East who was studying in North India and was on a visit to Delhi. It not only reminds one of the exodus of the north east people from the South some time back, but also brings to mind all other major manifestations of violent discrimination each of which hogged the national headlines for some time. However we note with dismay that no meaningful steps, whether short- or long- term, were taken to stop recurrence of such abominable incidents. Rather, the intolerance and barbarity appear to be on the rise in our society.

The rational and peace-loving people, who subscribe to sanity, cannot but oppose any and every discrimination - be it on the basis of geographical region, such as north east, or religion, or caste, or gender, or colour, or nationality, or any other.

We consider it our moral duty, and constitutional duty of the law enforcing agencies, to ensure that each and every person, who is a bonafide resident of, or visitor to, our country, moves about or lives, anywhere in our country without any fear of discrimination.

Friends, as an expression of solidarity with the discriminated sections of our society, in order to take our society along the desirable path of equity and justice, and to demand upholding of the law of the land, let us assemble as per the following details:
