Congress president Sonia Gandhi has rushed a three member team to the violence-hit Udalguri and Darrang districts where 62 people were killed, over 200 injured and hundreds of houses have been set on fire.

According to information, the three member committee headed by former Arunachal Pradesh Chief Minister Mukut Mithi, Shaqeel Ahmed and Malda MP AH Khan is visiting the riot hit areas and its relief camps. The team is expected to submit its report before Gandhi by October 15.

On the other hand, Army's western Assam zone general officer command of 4 Corps Lt general V K Singh is also visiting these areas on Saturday to take stock of the situation. This will be followed the visit of Union minister of state for home on Sunday.
