State BJP president Sarbananda Sonowal on Thursday charged Ranee Narah with trying to ignore his legal notice on the alleged deal with Pawan Singh Ghatowar.

Talking to reporters in the sidelines of a function at the party office, Sonowal said that he has not received an response from Narah on the legal notice.

He, further, dared the Union minister to substantiate the allegations which is believed to have been kept at a pen drive.

“I openly challenge her to show in public what is there in the pen drive,” said Sonowal.

Narah recently alleged that Narah has evidence to prove that Sonowal accepted money to the tune of crores of rupees from Pawan Singh Ghatowar. But Narah failed to get any response from her own party.
