Hojai: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal on Monday took stock of various flood affected areas in Hojai district. CM visited viz, Hatimura, Dakshin Kenduguri, Nabhanga, Jugijaan Villages here.

Notably, due to incessant rain last week, the Kopili and Jamuna river were over-flooded as a consequence of which many villages of the district were submerged in first wave of flood.

The present wave of flood has hit 93 villages affecting 94,445 people and 7650.50 hectare agricultural land of Hojai district. 54 relief camps were established and so far given shelter to more than 10 thousand inmates.

CM also visited the river Kopili induced erosion hit areas and breached embankment and directed the Water Resources Department to repair the breached areas on a war footing. He also asked the Public Works Department to repair the roads. Sonowal also went through slushy roads and visited relief camps set up at Jugijan and distributed nutritious food to the children.

Chief Minister Sonowal during his visit to the relief camps made a fervent appeal to the camp inmates to adhere to social distancing protocols and save themselves from COVID 19 infection. He also asked the district administration to conduct regular health check up on the camp inmates. He also asked the administration to ensure that the camp inmates get regular adequate and quality food, drinking water etc.

Sonowal further directed the Deputy Commissioner Dr. Sadnek Singh and other officials to take necessary measures for the repair works, rescue and rehabilitation in co-operation with local MLA and Minister in Charge.

Speaking to the reporter's on the sidelines during his onsite visit, Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal appreciated the residents of the state for strongly dealing with the four menaces at a time viz., Covid 19 pandemic, flood, storms and African swine flu with positive attitude without panicking and supporting the government endeavours.

Chief Minister said, "We have full faith on Prime Minister Narendra Modi that under his vibrant leadership, there will be a permanent solution of chronic problems of the State along neighbouring State like flood, landslides, erosion; etc."

He said for the first time BJP led Modi government constituted North East Water Management Authority under the Chairmanship of the vice chairman of NITI Aayog for the permanent solution of flood and erosion. He hoped that in the coming days Assam along with other neighbouring states will get relief from these calamities.

Sonowal lauded the efforts of Prime Minister Narendra Modi for giving equal priority to North Eastern States, he claimed earlier no government has given such importance to these States or formed such high level Committees for its upliftment.

Minister of State for Health and Family Welfare, Hojai MLA Shiladitya Dev, Luming MLA Sibumishra, officials and many other workers of BJP were present, during the CM's Visit.
