The Opposition Asom Gana Parishad is all set to move an adjournment motion as soon as the Assam Assembly session begins its second pay proceedings. According to information, the main opposition party has already submitted the notice on Monday to this effect. The regional party leaders here say this morning that AGP will be backed by BJP, AUDE, CPI and CPM. They observed that despite the Government's talk claim the state's law and order situation continues to be grim with the murder and murder cases refusing to halt. Further, they maintain that the state's financial position is worsening day by day and the Government continues to run on loan. But the ruling party members are equally ready to face the situation.
