Mani Kumar Subba's condition is gradually improving a day after the Tezpur independent candidate was admitted to GNRC Hospital.

Sources told Assam Times on Friday morning that his vital parameters are properly functioning and treatment gets quick response.

A team of doctors is closely monitoring Subba's health at the Intensive Care Unit following a mild stroke he suffered on Thursday morning.

Subba's supporters in large numbers have been praying for his early recovery. A section of these supporters have arrived in the city to visit their leader.

The former Congress MP was admitted in the Guwahati based private nursing hospital a 4-30 in the afternoon when he was airdashed from Lakhimpur
