

Talks fail to break dam deadlock

Comments 0

editor 6 January 2012 8860 views

A brainstorming round of talks between government has failed to break the deadlock over the NHPC-owned big dams in Gerukamukh.

Talking to KMSS, AASU, AJYCP and AJYCP delegations in Dispur on Thursday the group of ministers refused to force Arunachal Pradesh to stop construction.

The government would hold talks with the experts and prominent citizens on January 14. The protestors would decide the next course of action only after that.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Goodbye, prince of melody.....

Healthcare for All: Shushrusha Setu Mega Health Camp in Nazira Constituency

BPF heading for landslide victory in BTAD

10 days training for paramilitary force

WWF India launches digital environment course for students and teachers
