Teachers' Day was celebrated with enthusiasm and zeal at Adarsha Sishu Vikash Kendra, Raha. All the teachers of the school were honoured by Sayanika Deka, Headmistress, of the school, for their commitment and dedication to the cause of education. She, in her speech, urged them to lead a healthy and disciplined life and create a healthy environment. She put more emphasis on moral and ethical values, which she expected the students to follow. She also wanted the teachers to be role model for the children.

Kamal Chandra Sharma, President of the school Management Authority in his speech briefly spoke on the works and contribution of Dr Radha Krishnan, the former president of India, the great architect of the society and a modal teacher of the nation. He lauded the contribution made by the teachers of the school and for their devotion to the cause of education.

Gunemai Gogoi, the ex-headmistress and founder of the school in her speech said that a mediocre teacher tells, good teacher explains , superior teacher demonstrates and a great teacher always inspires the students to learn. She urged the teachers and the students of the school to be true to their education and to be a true human being.

Champa Das, Thunu Deka, Rambha Dutta, Ritu Bordoloi, Pankaj Paroi, Naresh Sharma, and Maya Trisna Kalita, teachers of the school also delivered their valuable speech on the occasion. The students of Class VII , VIII and IX also spoke on the significance of the day.

On this occasion, cake and sweets were distributed among the students and the teachers. The students presented pens, flowers and the greeting cards, prepared by them, as a token of love and appreciation, to their teachers.
