The ailment of at least ten people after inhaling a poisonous gas creates no less panic in Moran from Saturday.

At least ten people have been taken ill after they inhaled fomelin gas which emitted from a tanker on the National Highway No 37 on Saturday night.

The tanker carrying fomelin gas meant for Kolkata from Namrup Petrochemical halted near the Popo Ground at around 9 in the evening. But some people nearby inhaled the gas which emitted because of technical snag.

Thus a huge traffic snarl took place on the highway for four hours. Later OIL officials arrived in the spot and took away the truck.

KOKRAJHAR, September 22, 2026 — The All Bodo Students' Union (ABSU) on Tuesday burnt copies of a book titled Hamkoshar Parishista during protests held at several locations across Assam, including Gauhati University, objecting to what it described as the use of the Assamese script to represent the Bodo language.

Hamkoshar Parishista is a multilingual appendix containing learning resources for indigenous languages of Assam, including Bodo, Rabha, Mising and Karbi.

During the protests, ABSU members alleged that Bodo has been represented in the publication using the Assamese script instead of Devanagari, the script used for Bodo.

The organisation asserted that Bodo is recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution of India and is an Associate Official Language of Assam. ABSU demanded that Bodo be represented in its recognised script in educational and learning resources.

ABSU president Khwrmmdao Wary said the use of the Assamese script to represent Bodo in the publication was disrespectful to the Bodo language and literature.

He said Bodo is an Associate Official Language of Assam and a language recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution.

Wary demanded the immediate withdrawal of the publication in its present form and called for the use of the Devanagari script for Bodo in the book.
