

Assam Times

assamtimes.org

DEVELOPMENT

Teok village strikes attention

AT News · 10:12, 9 Aug 2014 · 9887 views · 1 min read

A tiny hamlet in Teok area draws the attention the entire country. The abode of 388 families in Jorhat will receive a rare honour (/taxonomy/term/571) at the Independence Day (/taxonomy/term/1016) function at Kachari Maidam in Jorhat for exemplary pledge to end (/taxonomy/term/713) tobacco (/taxonomy/term/1475) consumption (/taxonomy/term/1393) habits among the villagers.

The village now in the limelight is the Jogduar Gayan Gaon which has shown the best examples.

The villagers will be honoured with a 'Certificate of Appreciation' on Independence Day (/taxonomy/term/1016) for their exemplary work.

According to the villagers, they pledged to give up tobacco (/taxonomy/term/1475) consumption (/taxonomy/term/1393) habit after teachers and students of CKB College (/taxonomy/term/1140) with the help of the local administration launched the massive campaign in the village.

Despite some hurdles in the initial stage, the villagers later allowed the anti tobacco (/taxonomy/term/1475) campaign to take its grip. /

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/teok-village-strikes-attention-11483> | Published: 9 August 2014 | © 2026 Assam Times