Altogether three lakh fifty six thousand and nine hundred fourteen candidates are appearing in the teachers eligibility test in the state on Tuesday. Being jointly organized by the Board of Secondary Education, Assam and the Assam government, the test is being conducted in altogether seven hundred and twenty eight centres across the state. Education Minister Dr Himanta Biswa Sarma said that the result would be announced on January twenty fifth. The state is holding TET for the first time to recruit teachers in the various lower primary and upper primary schools.
