There is more revelation in connection with Assam serial blast. According to police, Thungri Boro and Dinesh Boro are the main culprits behind the blasts that shocked Kacharighat and Panbazar on October 30. According to police, both they parked two cars in Panbazar and Kacharigaht containing some explosive materials. Babul was the driver of the car blue coloured Alto bearing No AS)1 AE 9726 to lift Thungri and Dinesh to Rangiya from the city's Bharalumukh area. Babul was produced before the court of Kamrup Chief Judicial magistrate Kabin Phukan as an approver. Babul was silent when he was brought to the court.

Meanwhile, On the other hand, Rajiv Chainary and Mridul Basumatary on Monday were sent to judicial custody. They were picked up by police from Garchuck area recently. According to information, Dispur police will seek again take him in the custody in connection with the Ganeshguri blast.
