Security has been tightened to ensure smooth conduct of the 63rd Republic Day celebrations on Thursday.

Assam Chief Secretary N K Das reviewed security scenario when he was chairing a meeting in Dispur on Wednesday.

Special security cover has been laid on major and important sectors like installations of OIL, ONGC and IOC, railways, airport, bus depots and other public places, sources said.

Apart from showcasing the diverse cultural extravaganza and displaying of tableaux, scouts and guides of the state will be felicitated for rendering service in managing the large inflow of mourners following the death of the legendary Dr Bhupen Hazarika.
