Guwahati: Top NSCN-IM leader Thuingaleng Muivah is unwell. He was airlifted to the Christian Institute of Health and Research in Dimapur in the afternoon following complaints of vomiting and diarrhea on Friday. A team of experts has been attending on the Naga leader.

The hospital, however, has not released any bulletin on the status. According to sources, the details could be ascertained only after a few tests.

Naga civil societies have prayed for early recovery of Muivah who has been carrying out the process to settle the vexed political issue.
