The rebels thronged the central Assam area in the afternoon and took out the torch rally shouting slogans against those involved in the nefarious design to attack the native people.

Some of these protestors reiterated the move to resume the arms struggle if these people of doubtful nationality try to dominate the native ones.

A section of the protesters suddenly shouted slogans supporting ULFA(I) military head Paresh Baruah and his stand. Local residents in large number representing many organizations also joined the rally.
