Come February 19. The state will host the trade and industry fair. The venue is Jorhat. Jointly organized by the Assam government and the Federation of Industry and Commerce of North Eastern Region, the event—first of its kind in the entire north east aims at boosting the investment on this vital front.

Talking to reporters in Guwahati on Wednesday, industry minister Pradyut Bordoloi said that fair is expected to provide a platform for business opportunities and enterprise building with national and international markets.

FINER chairman RS Joshi said Pakistan, Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand, Singapore, Bangladesh and Italy have already confirmed their participation in the event. He said the trade and industry fair will be the largest international industrial fair in Asia with over 250 exhibitors and a huge conglomeration of business visitors from North-East.

The fair will also have concurrently a host of business summits and interactive session with Embassy participation from Asean, Saarc and BCIM countries.

KOKRAJHAR, September 22, 2026 — The All Bodo Students' Union (ABSU) on Tuesday burnt copies of a book titled Hamkoshar Parishista during protests held at several locations across Assam, including Gauhati University, objecting to what it described as the use of the Assamese script to represent the Bodo language.

Hamkoshar Parishista is a multilingual appendix containing learning resources for indigenous languages of Assam, including Bodo, Rabha, Mising and Karbi.

During the protests, ABSU members alleged that Bodo has been represented in the publication using the Assamese script instead of Devanagari, the script used for Bodo.

The organisation asserted that Bodo is recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution of India and is an Associate Official Language of Assam. ABSU demanded that Bodo be represented in its recognised script in educational and learning resources.

ABSU president Khwrmmdao Wary said the use of the Assamese script to represent Bodo in the publication was disrespectful to the Bodo language and literature.

He said Bodo is an Associate Official Language of Assam and a language recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution.

Wary demanded the immediate withdrawal of the publication in its present form and called for the use of the Devanagari script for Bodo in the book.
