The Central Bureau of Investigation steps up the probe into the Saradha scam where a circle of powerful political leaders is involved.

The country's premier investigation agency probing the scam is all set to quiz former minister Dr Himanta Biswa Sarma and Anjan Dutta.

The duo received summons from to appear before the SIT on November 24 at its Salt Lake based office. CBI earlier questioned Dutta in this connection.

CBI on August 28 conducted raid at the residence of Dutta in Guwahati apart from Dr Sarma's residence and Newslive office owned by his wife.

Sources told Assam Times that CBI if need be is likely to seek their custodial interrogation.
