The United Bodo People organization has expressed deep concern over the unwanted politics of mud-slinging a section of Bodo leaders to gain political mileage over the recent carnage.

In a statement, president and general secretary of United Bodo People organization Mihiniswar Basumatary and Gambaru Muchahary said that the Bodo leaders should understand the real fact that other inimical and hostile different non Bodo organisation and outfits have already taken it as the weakness of the Bodos and their very bent on cornering out the Bodo society as a whole during this critical juncture.

'This abominable politics has rather boomeranged the overall interest of the Bodo society, instead of benefiting none of the Bodo leaders are engaged in each other mud-slinging politics, it said and urged upon the leaders of different-political and non political Bodo organaisations to refrain from practicing each other mud-slinging politics for their vested interest.

GUWAHATI, October 1, 2026 — The Department of Applied Biology, University of Science & Technology Meghalaya (USTM), in association with the Microbiologists Society, India (MBSI) and the Federation of European Microbiological Societies (FEMS), concluded International Microorganisms Day 2026 and a national workshop on “Academic Writing and Scholarly Publications” on Thursday.

The programme, held from September 17, focused on strengthening academic writing, research communication and scholarly publishing skills among Master’s students, research scholars and early-career researchers.

USTM Vice Chancellor Prof G D Sharma inaugurated the programme. Prof Kumananda Tayung, Dean, Faculty of Sciences, Gauhati University, and Dr Niraj Singh, State President, MBSI (Assam & Meghalaya), attended as Chief Guest-cum-Resource Person and Guest of Honour respectively.

Experts from India and Saudi Arabia conducted sessions on scientific writing, manuscript preparation, publication ethics, scholarly communication and journal selection. Participants from USTM, The Assam Royal Global University and Cotton University attended the programme.

A Poster and Model Competition was also organised, with prizes distributed to the winners.

The programme was organised under the chairpersonship of Dr Sony Kumari, Head, Department of Applied Biology, with Dr Yugal Kishore Mohanta as Convener and Dr Tamanna Bhuyan as coordinator.
