Guwahati : The United Liberation Front of Something has released Ram Kumar four months after they kidnapped the private oil exploration firm in Arunachal Pradesh.

Kumar was released at an undisclosed location along the Indo-Myanmar border in Nagaland on Monday wee hours.

Kumar was kidnapped along with Pranab Kumar Gogoi on December 21,2021 whom they freed on Saturday.

ULFA-I took the duo to their captivity claiming Rs 20 crore and in February the insurgents threatened to kill Kumar and Gogoi for failing to meet the demand. But they suspended the extreme step under the mounting pressure from all sides.
