

ULFA's pro-talk faction threatens to reconsider ceasefire

Comments 0

editor 17 September 2008 12572 views

The killing of ULFA's second lieutenant Sashanka Baruah stymie the on going peace initiatives if Mrinal Hazarika's strong message to Army is any indication.

Hazarika, who is leading ULFA's pro talk faction made it plain and simple that if army further fails to stop the killing of ULFA cadres in the name of encounter, they will have no option but to give a reconsider the unilateral ceasefire.

Talking to a private news channel, Mrinal Hazarika said, " If these repeat we will be bound to reconsider the unilateral ceasefire."

Army have claimed that Sashanka Baruah died at an encounter but the pro talk faction said it's a cold blooded murder. They said spots of bullet attacks are enough to understand that he was shot dead from a close range. According to the pro talk ULFA cadre Jiten Dutta, it's nothing but a conspiracy to impede the peace process.

Jiten Dutta, another ULFA's pro truce cadre said, "it's a cold blooded murder. It's nothing but conspiracy to foil our bid for restoration of peace."

But ULFA central leadership has charged pro talk ULFA topgun Prabal Neog with killing Sashanka. They maintained that despite repeated pressure, Sashanka did not join the faction. Moreover, ULFA's central leadership has expelled Prabal Neog from the outfit hours after the killing of Sashanka Baruah.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Arms recovered

Essay competition for students

Programme on pursuing career after graduation held at Doomdooma

Daoharu Mungkhlong trophy match from Oct 1

BTC special session discusses development
