Dibrugarh : One programmed Time device fitted with IED was recovered from a ULFA militant in Dibrugarh when he was on his way to plant it at the Parade ground in which the District Administration would be holding the Independence Day Celebrations on 15th of August 07. The device was timed to go off on the 15th of August 07 The suspect has been identified as Bitupon Moran of Hebetagaon in Makum. Moran was captured near the fire station when he was on his way to plant the bomb. Moran confessed that he was a ULFA member and had joined ULFA two years ago. It may be mentioned that four years ago on 15th of August 07, a powerful bomb blast had exploded in the parade ground in Dhemaji killing 13 people including 7 students.
