It can't but be a breaking news. Never did ULFA say its wants Bangladeshi immigrants should quit Assam at the height of the riot in Darrang and Udalguri.

According to information, ULFA is still simple and clear it wants Indians to go before the immigrants. The controversy erupts after zee News beamed a story that ULFA backs the battle against the Bangladeshi immigrants. Quoting ULFA chairman Arabinda Rajkhowa as saying, a private satellite TV news channel says its not true. According to Rajkhowa, the Indians are also outsiders and must quit Assam.
