

ULFA explodes grenade in Tinsukia; 10 injured

Comments 0

editor 3 January 2012 11287 views

ULFA's anti talk faction seems to have stepped up activities ahead of the Republic Day. At least ten persons have sustained injuries when a powerful grenade exploded in Tinsukia on Monday. The blast took place around 6-30 in the evening in front of Tinsukia Civil where the grenade planted at a bag exploded with a huge sound when the spot was teeming with people. The injured have been rushed to Civil Hospital at Tinsukia. Police have called in a handiwork of ULFA in view of the recent bid to regroup. Security forces have cordoned off the area and a massive search operation launched to apprehend the culprits.

Another unexploded bomb, weighing five kilogram, has also been recovered during search operation at Chabua in Dibrugarh district.

Police said the militants on a motorcycle hurled the grenade at Sankar glass house in the busy Gopinath Bordoloi road at 6.10 pm.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

BJP leader likely to surrender

Congress demands CM's resignation

Durga puja ends in Kokrajhar

Award for BVFCL Daily Bazaar Puja

Dalai Lama to visit Manipur on October 17
