

ULFA-Govt talks in January

Comments 0

editor 2 December 2010 9624 views

Both government and ULFA are gearing up to hold talks in January. In all probabilities, the talks would take place sans Paresh Barua. According to sources, Assam chief minister Tarun Gogoi is getting in touch with a circle of top ULFA leaders who have already been released on bail.

These ULFA leaders are doing all these at the every instance of Arabinda Rajkhowa while the ULFA chairman is preparing to move a bail plea before the court seeking bail. Immediately after procuring baily in December, Rajkhowa is expected to convene ULFA general council meet to take a formal decision. Altogether 6 general council members have procured bail. Three others are in a process to be released.

Pro-Talk ULFA

Topguns

Meanwhile, modelities are being worked out by the Assam government will secret consent from ULFA top guns. ULFA will announce its formal consent only after the general body meet.

Meanwhile, the congress party in rank and file have been mounting pressure on the cetral leadership to hold the talks in January to woo the voters. The other day union home minister P Chidambaram hinted at free hand to chief minister Tarun Gogoi to proceed.

Arabinda Rajkhowa
Pradeep Gogoi
Raju Baruah
Mithinga Daimary
Sasha Chaudhury
Chitrabon Hazarika
Pranati Deka
Bhimkanta
Buragohain
Ramu Mech

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

When Justice-for-Zubeen campaign gains momentum

Assam Women Clinch National Tchoukball Championship

গুৱাহাটীত জুৰি লোৱা গৈছে (3)

Buffy to distribute sanitary napkins in Nagaland.

Heart awareness rally in the city
